APPLICATION QUESTIONS

Do you think more about the work you need to do or the nap you want to take?

Consider Culture Sermon Series

August 19 & 20: Consider A.I. (Artificial Intelligence)

August 26 & 27: Consider the Rise of Anxiety and Depression

September 2 & 3: Consider the Lost and How to Reach Them

September 9 & 10: Consider Those Deconstructing Their Faith

HEBREWS 3:1-2 (ESV)

2 who was faithful to him who appointed him,
just as Moses also was faithful in all God's house.

Consider Jesus.

"It reminds me to be faithful to the work God has me in and the role I have. Even though there are many days I am frustrated or down doing the job, I know it has purpose, and I need to rely on God in that. I also just love the tree, but I feel like I am just one of the branches trying to bear some fruit for the Kingdom, and that I need to have love and compassion for the students I serve. Many are hurting and I need to remember that my role is bigger than just as a teacher, but as a believer in a lost world."

He has clearly given us marching orders and commands five times post-resurrection to go, to share, and to not stop until every single person has heard!

I face this temptation to fill my life with “naps” every single day.
Oh Lord, help me be found busy doing the simple task of sharing your gospel and making disciples.

The crazy thing is, no one notices ants. No one gives them awards and accolades. The Christian life is filled with small, unnoticed, not awardable actions, decisions, and thoughts.

Yet, God sees it all and promises to exalt those who are humble and faithful. In the next life, we will truly see who was working hard according to God's standards.
