Child Dedication

Children are a gift from God, and for this reason, we dedicate our children back to Him. During the child dedication ceremony, the parents, or parent, come before God and the church family and present the child with thanksgiving before the Lord.

If you are interested in participating in this ceremony, visit thegrove.cc/childdedication. The ceremony on Saturday, January 27 at 3 PM has limited availability, but please fill out the form on the webpage to learn about our 2024 dates.
