1. A faith beyond EMOTION, SITUATIONS and CIRCUMSTANCES

Luke 6: 47-49 (ESV): Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great.

Discussion Questions

1. What big ideas/understandings will you take with you after reading Genesis 34-36 and listening to today's message? What stands out to you? What connections did you make?
2. How do you know when your responses are emotion centered vs Christ centered? In what situations do you find emotion centered responses to be your "go to"? How do we build the capacity to calibrate and cultivate Christ centered responses?
3. God called Jacob back, however it took some trials and tribulations before he returned to where God was calling him. How is God calling you today? What do you need to shift in your thinking and habits to respond powerfully to His call?
4. God wants us to live for Him. What does that look like in your life? In your relationships? At work? In your marriage? In your singleness? In your ministry?
